WILLIAM CLAY FORD

President

He started attending Lion games back in 1934 when the franchise was moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio.

Thirty years later, he became the club's sole owner. He attends every game at home and on the road. He is daily at his desk in the Lions' office as he personally supervises the multi-faceted job of operating a professional football franchise.

He plays an active role at meetings of the league's top executives in addition to occupying a vital position in the automotive company which carries the family name. He is busy with civic projects on a local, state and national basis.

But chiefly because he is just another of the thousands of Lion fans who cheer victory and suffer defeat.

He became a board member of the Lions' organization in 1956, was named president in 1961 and then bought out the group of stockholders who had purchased the club in 1948 from Fred Mandel of Chicago. As its sole owner, Mr. Ford takes the company back to its local origin in 1934 when it was owned by the late George A. Richards.

In addition to his daily duties as owner and president of the club, he also carries the responsibilities as vice president of the Ford Motor Co. in charge of product planning and design. He is the grandson of the late Henry Ford, founder of the motor company and the youngest of four children of the late Edsel B. Ford.

As a community leader, Mr. Ford has been president of the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. He is a trustee of the Thomas A. Edison Foundation, secretary-treasurer of the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research, a trustee of the Michigan Heart Association and chairman of the 1968 Detroit Area Council Eagle Scout recognition program.

He has served as national campaign chairman of the United Cerebral Palsy Association on four occasions and is a director of the United Foundation in addition to serving as chairman of the Sports Enterprises Group campaign. He is also a director of the National Tennis Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Yale University in 1949, Ford—now 44—has held positions in sales and advertising and in industrial relations. He was general manager of the Continental Division before assuming his present duties with the company in 1956. He has been a member of the Ford Motor Co. board of directors since 1948.

An avid sports enthusiast, he played varsity tennis and soccer at Yale in addition to being a low handicap golfer. He is a member of the Country Club of Detroit.

Mr. Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They have three daughters—Martha, Sheila, Elizabeth, and one son, William Clay, Jr. The Fords reside in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan.

RUSSELL THOMAS

Vice President and General Manager

The day-to-day operation of the Detroit football franchise is the job of Russ Thomas who came to the Lions as a player 23 years ago and has been a member of the organization most of the intervening seasons.

He was named vice president and general manager in 1967 after three years as director of player personnel. He had served the club as player, assistant coach, scout and radio broadcaster in addition to being a member of the collegiate coaching staff at St. Bonaventure.

A native of West Virginia, Thomas came out of that state as one of the most-sought-after high school football and track stars. He held the national high school shot-put record before enrolling at Ohio State where he played on national championship teams under Coach Paul Brown.

He was drafted by the Lions in 1946 and played four seasons before knee operations ended his playing career. A Detroit-area resident for 23 years, Russ and his wife, Dorothy, have two sons, John and Jim.

EDWIN J. ANDERSON

Executive Vice President

A key figure in organizing a group of local sports enthusiasts who purchased the Detroit football franchise from Chicagoan Fred Mandel in 1948, Andy was named club president in 1949 and held that post for 12 seasons. He served as general manager for nine of those years.

His present duties are chiefly concerned in over-all league policies with special emphasis on directing Detroit's finance and policy-making committee.

A graduate of Beloit College, Anderson was an outstanding athlete. He entered the advertising and sales fields and was president of a Detroit brewery from 1941 until 1958.

Anderson has an enviable record of civic accomplishment, including the general chairmanship of the 1945 Community Fund, the presidency of the Children's Hospital of Detroit for three years, and the presidency of the Birmingham Community Center for two years. He still is a member of the board of the Lumberman's Mutual Casualty Company and the American Motorist Insurance Company.

1969 Detroit Lions Coaching Staff

JOE SCHMIDT Head Coach

"The first two years were tough," insists Coach Joe Schmidt. "But this third year will be tougher . . . on the other guys . . ."

Now 37, the former star Lion linebacker is moving into his third season as Detroit field boss and while he is not enough of an optimist to predict that his team will wind up in the Super Bowl, Schmidt definitely feels that the frustrating campaigns of 1967 and 1968 will pay a dividend in '69.

The Lions have undergone the greatest re-shuffling job in their history in the past two seasons. A total of 20 players were new to the team last year. Nine others were just one short step out of the rookie class of 1967. That adds up to 29 men on last year's 40-plus squad who were elsewhere as recently as 1966.

Such wholesale newness, plus an uncommon seige of crippling injuries to key men like Mel Farr, Bill Munson, Nick Eddy, Larry Hand, Joe Robb, John Gordy and others limited the Lions to four victories and two ties last season after a 5-7-2 mark the previous year.

But Schmidt is convinced that the newness of the rebuilding program has worn off. He also is encouraged by the way his injured players have come through their rehabilitation program to ready themselves for the new season.

Joe is the Lions' 11th head coach in 36 seasons. He stepped into the job two years ago after one season as a Detroit assistant following his retirement as a player in 1965 after 13 brilliant years.

Schmidt's elevation to the head coach position was a popular one with Lion fans and players. No Detroit athlete gained more respect from the fans he played for and the players he played with and against than did Schmidt.

Every honor in professional football came his way after he joined the Lions as their seventh round draft choice in 1953. He came out of the University of Pittsburgh as a fullback and guard who played a fine defensive game.

The Lions groomed him for a new job, that of middle linebacker. It was the start of a trend in pro football — a four-man front line, three linebackers, two cornerbacks and a pair of safetymen. Joe fit into the middle of this defensive alignment in perfect style.

When he took off his Lion uniform for the last time at the close of the 1965 season, Joe had been named to the Pro Bowl team 10 times, had made the NFL All-Pro team on nine occasions, captained the Lions nine years and been voted Detroit's Most-Valuable Player on four occasions.

JIMMY DAVID
(Over-all Defense)

The Lion defense, long a trademark in Detroit, is directed by a former Lion player who was instrumental in helping establish its reputation.

Jimmy David returned to Detroit in 1967, 15 years after he first joined them as their 22nd draft choice in 1952. During his eight-year career, he became recognized as one of the finest defensive backs in the NFL.

After he completed his playing career, Jimmy was an assistant on the staff of the Los Angeles Rams for three years and then spent three more with the San Francisco 49ers in the same capacity before returning to Detroit.

He was named to the Pro Bowl six times and played on Lions teams that won four Western Divisional crowns and three NFL championships. A strong tackler and excellent defender, he intercepted 36 passes for the Detroiters.

David retired as a player after the 1959 season and embarked on a coaching career which now has brought him back to where he started. In addition to his coaching background, Jimmy also served as chief talent scout for the Rams.

A graduate of Colorado State, he was one of three members of that college team who went on to star for the Lions. The other two were Jack Christiansen and Thurman McGraw (now assistant athletic director at Colorado State).

JIM MARTIN
(Defensive Line)

Jim is back for his third season as defensive line coach as a member of a coaching triumvirate steeped in Detroit football history. Like Head Coach Joe Schmidt and over-all defensive coach Jimmy David, Martin played on Lion championship teams in the 1950's.

A great competitor as a player, he coaches his linemen to adopt the same strong competitive spirit. He is a stickler on conditioning. Among his many duties is the tutoring of the team's place kickers and punters.

Jim came out of Notre Dame as an All-American at two positions — end and tackle. Big, strong, and durable, he spent one season with the Cleveland Browns before moving to Detroit in 1951. When he left 11 years later, he had been a vital factor in four Western Divisional titles and three NFL championships.

His career total of 56 field goals still stands as a team high. His 259 points, all by toe, is the third best in Lion history. Jim played with four NFL teams during his career and served as defensive line coach with the Denver Broncos of the AFL and at Idaho State.

As a collegian at Notre Dame, he started 34 consecutive games for another record that is still alive. Jim and his family now reside in the Detroit area.

BILL McPEAK
(Over-all Offense)

The task of welding the offense into a scoring unit is the property of Bill McPeak, now in his 13th season as a professional football coach including five years as the head man of the Washington Redskins. This is his third season at Detroit.

"Our quarterbacks, our starting receivers and almost all of our runners were new to the Lions, and to each other, last year," he points out. "With that year of seasoning under our belt, we definitely should have more cohesion in '69 . . ."

A product of New Castle, Pa., he was an outstanding collegiate star at the University of Pittsburgh where he was tutored in football by three head coaches—Clark Shaughnessy (1945), Wes Fesler (1946) and Mike Milligan (1947-48).

His playing career as a professional began in 1949 as a defensive end for the Pittsburgh Steelers and he ended his playing action with that same club in 1957. Durable and quick-thinking as a player, Bill was named to the Eastern Pro Bowl team in 1953-54-57.

The Steelers recognized his coaching abilities while he still was a player. Bill served as a player-coach at Pittsburgh in 1956 and '57 and then handled the dual job of assistant coach and chief talent scout in 1958.

The next season he moved to Washington as offensive backfield coach. After two years as an assistant, he was made head coach in 1961 and handled that job through the 1965 season.

The next year he was employed by CBS as a television analyst for NFL games.

CHUCK KNOX
(Offensive Line)

The job of welding a strong offensive line which can open holes for Lion runners and form a protective cordon for Detroit passers is the possession of Chuck Knox, now in his third season.

He was picked for the task after four years of experience in the same job with the New York Jets under Coach Weeb Ewbank. Before that he was a high school coach for three seasons following a playing career at Juniata College in Pennsylvania. Following his graduation, he remained as a member of the coaching staff in 1956.

Chuck served two years at the University of Kentucky as line coach under Blanton Collier and Charley Bradshaw after two earlier seasons at Wake Forest in 1959-60. Like all members of the Detroit staff, he is employed on a year-round basis.

JOHN NORTH

This is John North's fifth season with the Lions as tutor of the pass-catchers and he is optimistic about the passing game for 1969 with the return of Earl McCullouch and Charlie Sanders, the 1968 freshmen who grabbed 40 passes each and dominated NFL rookie-of-the-year polls.

As the senior member of the Lion coaching corps (all others are in their third year here), North moves into his 19th consecutive season as a coach. His career covers all levels from prep to pro with stops at Tallassee (Ala.) high school in 1951-52, assistant at Tennessee Tech in 1953-54, assistant at Kentucky from 1955 to 1961, assistant at Louisiana State from 1963 to 1964 and a member of the Lion staff since 1965.

He played end for the Baltimore Colts after a fine collegiate career at Vanderbilt University.

LION PLAYERS ACHIEVEMENTS IN 1968

Quarterback BILL MUNSON's 181 completions in 1968 is a new club record, beating by two Milt Plum's total in 1962 . . . MEL FARR'S 29 carries against the Packers last October bettered by two the former club mark set by Nick Pietrosante in 1964 against the Colts . . . MUNSON joined Bobby Layne in the team records with his 26 completions against Baltimore in November. Layne's best completion total was achieved in 1955 against the Rams . . . CHARLIE SANDERS caught 10 passes in Washington on the last day of the season to join three former Lions (Terry Barr, Lew Carpenter, Bill Swiacki) in second spot behind Cloyce Box's team high of 12 receptions in 1950 versus Baltimore . . . FARR and BILLY GAMBRELL each scored three times in a game last year, falling one short of the Lion record, set by Box on the day he caught those 12 passes against the Colts . . . JERRY DePOYSTER punted 10 times in Los Angeles to share the team mark, set 20 years ago by George Grimes . . . LEM BARNEY returned six punts vs. San Francisco in October to equal Yale Lary's club record (set in 1959 against the Steelers) . . . MUNSON (8) and GREG LANDRY (7) were intercepted only 15 times last year, the NFL's low team figure, equaled by Green Bay.

1968 LIONS SEASON REVIEW

(Scorer's Names in Capitals)

SEPT. 15—DETROIT 13, DALLAS 59, at Dallas (61,382)

Landry started at quarterback for the injured Munson and on the sixth play of the game hit FARR over the middle with a pass-run play for 45 yards and a touchdown. DePoyster's conversion try was blocked. Dallas bounced right back to go ahead, 7-6, when Meredith completed a 50-yard scoring pass to HAYES.

Dallas broke it open in the second quarter with a 16-yard field goal by CLARK and three touchdowns, two of them on interceptions of Landry passes. Jordan started the parade by intercepting a Lion pass and returning it to the Detroit 35. REEVES bumped over from the one six plays later. Dallas scored again on a Meredith to BAYNHAM pass for 23 yards, and then took a 31-6 lead at half-time when HOWLEY picked off another Landry aerial and ran it in for a 35-yard score.

In the third period, the Cowboys scored with REEVES going in from the two before Landry hit McCULLOUGH with an 80-yard scoring bomb.

Dallas ran up the score in the final period on two short dives by GARRISON, plus a 36-yard scoring pass from Morton to HOMAN.

(Landry—15 completions in 31 attempts for 231 yards and 2 touchdowns. Also had 4 interceptions; Farr—11 carries for 21 yards; McCullough—5 catches for 132 yards and 1 touchdown.)

SEPT. 22—DETROIT 42, CHICAGO 0, at Detroit (50,688)

Barney set up the first score of the game when he intercepted a Concannon pass at midfield and returned it to the Bear 37 midway in the first period. Munson then hit McCULLOUGH on the next play with a perfect pass on the three and Earl took it in.

Early in the second period, Weger picked off another Concannon pass on the Detroit seven and returned it to the 14. Munson hit FARR on the 39 and Mel went all the way for an 86-yard touchdown. Rakestraw replaced Concannon as Chicago quarterback and his fumble was recovered by Robb who ran it back 17 yards to the Bear three. MUNSON took it in on a quarterback sneak. On the third play after the next kickoff, Rakestraw's pass was intercepted at the 50 by SWAIN who took it all the way for a 50-yard touchdown. DePOYSTER'S extra point try made it 28-0 at intermission.

Weger made Detroit's fourth interception at the start of the third quarter and the Lions went 80 yards in 10 plays with Munson passing 15 yards to McCULLOUGH to cap it.

Naumoff and Weger intercepted passes in the third period but the Lions didn't score again until Barney grabbed a Rakestraw pass midway through the final period at the Detroit 20. Landry replaced Munson and took the team 80 yards in seven plays. LANDRY went the final three yards on a bootleg play. Barney picked off another Bear pass for the 8th Lion interception of the game in the final minute.

(Munson—15 completions in 23 passes for 279 yards and 3 touchdowns; Farr—Carried 12 times for 51 yards; McCullough—Caught three passes for 80 yards and 2 touchdowns.)

SEPT. 29—DETROIT 23, GREEN BAY 17, at Green Bay (50,861)

The Packers struck hard on the fourth play after the opening kickoff when Starr fired a 63-yard touchdown strike to DALE. The Packers made it 10-0 with 2:10 to go in the quarter when KRAMER booted a 38-yard field goal.

After Kramer missed a field goal midway in the second period, Barney intercepted a Starr pass and returned it to the Packer 47. Farr ran for 16 and then for three. Munson passed to Farr for 22 more. Munson fired to GAMBRELL over the middle for a touchdown from the six. DePOYSTER converted and it was 10-7 at halftime.

Detroit tied the score on DePOYSTER'S 30-yard field goal after the second half kickoff. Green Bay couldn't move and the Lions took over on their 35 after a punt. Munson hit McCullough for 37 en route to the three-yard line before FARR went in to make it 17-10.

Green Bay intercepted a Munson pass in the endzone to stop another Detroit drive early in the final period and the Packers then tied the score. Starr found DALE again for a 35-yard scoring pass. The Lions took the kickoff and marched right back to win as they rumbled 79 yards. With third down at the Packer 12 and eight yards to go, Munson went to the bench at the two-minute warning signal. He came back, rolled out and surprised the Packers by pitching to GAMBRELL who was all alone in the right corner of the endzone.

(Munson—Completed 15 of 22 for 194 yards and 2 touchdowns; Farr—Gained 92 yards on 23 carries and scored 1 touchdown; McCullough—Caught 5 passes for 75 yards.)

OCT. 6—DETROIT 10, MINNESOTA 24, at Minnesota (44,289)

Detroit broke the ice after nine minutes when DePOYSTER booted a 33-yard field goal, but the Vikings went ahead in the second quarter. Beasley grabbed a pass for 10 yards, Brown hit the middle for five before LINDSEY bolted in for the touchdown. COX converted and the Vikings led, 7-3 at halftime.

The Lions couldn't move in the third period as the Minnesota line put heavy pressure on Munson. The Vikings drove 74 yards to score again late in the period with Kapp doing the quarterbacking after Cuozzo suffered a broken shoulder. The drive stalled and COX kicked a 29-yard field goal.

The Lions came right back to tie the count when Munson fired a 49-yard pass to McCullough to reach the Viking 32. On the third play from that point, Munson passed to FARR who went 30 yards for the touchdown. The Vikings took the kickoff and went 73 yards in 14 plays to break it open. BROWN went in from the one for the score. The Lions had to punt after the kickoff and the Vikings scored again with BROWN again going in from the one.

(Munson—Completed 13 of 18 for 196 yards and 1 touchdown; Farr—Carried 11 times for 43 yards, caught 5 passes for 86 and a touchdown.)

OCT. 13—DETROIT 28, CHICAGO 10, at Chicago (46,996)

Barney recovered a Rakestraw fumble on the Bears' 36 and Munson promptly hit FARR with a pass that Mel took on the three and carried into the endzone. Barney recovered another Bear fumble on the first play after the kickoff but a Lion field goal try was wide from the 22. On the first play from the 20, Rakestraw hit TURNER with a short pass and he went all the way to tie the score.

The Lions came back to score on the next series by going 54 yards in 10 plays with FARR going the final nine yards. The Bears drove back to the Detroit 24 before PERCIVAL kicked a 33-yard field goal and Detroit led, 14-10, at halftime.

The Lions put on an 80-yard drive which consumed 9:30 minutes to boost their margin in the third period. FARR went in from the one.

The Lions added another touchdown in the fourth quarter while the Detroit defense completely throttled the Bear attack. Munson clicked on a 52-yard pass to McCullouch to reach the nine. Then he hit Farr with a six yard pass before NOWATZKE plunged over.

(Munson—Completed 13 of 22 passes for 169 yards and 1 touchdown; Farr—Carried 18 times for 138 yards, and caught 6 passes for 73.)

OCT. 20—DETROIT 14, GREEN BAY 14, at Detroit (57,302)

Thompson took the opening kickoff and returned it 20 yards to the Detroit 30. Triplett ran for seven and then for two before Farr made one and a first down at the 40. On the next play, Munson waited for McCULLOUCH to beat Jeter and Brown. Then he fired a perfect lead-pass which Earl took on the 19 and raced into the endzone untouched. Thompson recovered the fumbled kickoff at the Packer 29. Munson pitched to McCULLOUCH who had faked Jeter out of position in the endzone for another touchdown. DePOYSTER again converted and the Lions led, 14-0, after 6:28 had been played in the game.

Green Bay moved to the Lions' 32 before they were held. A field goal try was short, partially blocked by Weger. Neither team could launch any kind of a sustained drive in the remainder of the first half.

In the third period, Barney called for a fair catch on the 15, fumbled the ball and Winkler recovered for Green Bay. The Packers scored when Bratkowski passed to DALE who bulled in from the five.

Early in the final period, Munson was smeared on an attempted pass and Davis recovered for the Packers on the Detroit 40. Seven plays moved the ball to the three with the biggest one being a 13-yard run by Bratkowski after he was trapped. Zeke was hurt on the play. Starr came in and promptly passed to DOWLER for a three-yard score which tied the game at 14-14. Detroit drove back hard and reached the Packer 33 before Farr's fumble was recovered by Green Bay. Then the Packers threatened. They reached the Detroit 26 on a pass play before Naumoff recovered a fumble by Williams.

(Munson—Completed 9 of 13 for 105 yards and 2 touchdowns; Farr—Carried 29 times for 145 yards; McCullouch—Caught 4 passes for 82 yards and 2 touchdowns.)

OCT. 27—DETROIT 7, SAN FRANCISCO 14, at Detroit (53,555)

The Lions missed a field goal from the 42 the first time they had the ball before the 49ers opened the scoring at 10:26 of the opening period. Alexander made a fair catch on his own 35 of a DePoyster punt. On the first play, Brodie wound up and threw a long pass to McNEILL who took it on the Detroit 35 and went all the way for a 65-yard touchdown. PATERA converted.

The Lions couldn't get untracked during the first half.

Both teams exchanged fumbles early in the third period before Patera attempted a 45-yard field goal midway through the quarter. It was short. BARNEY took it on the six and returned it 94 yards for a touchdown. DePOYSTER converted to tie the score at 7-7.

The 49ers went ahead early in the final quarter when Munson's long pass for McCullough was intercepted by Fuller who returned it three yards to his 24. Brodie went to McNeill for passes good for 15 and six before he fired a strike to Lewis who went 31 yards to the 12. He was hit and fumbled. WITCHER scooped up the bouncing ball and ran 12 yards into the endzone for the winning touchdown. The Lions drove deep into San Francisco territory twice in the waning minutes but failed to score.

(Munson—Completed 15 of 35 for 169 yards; Kopay—Carried 13 times for 50 yards, and caught 5 passes for 30.)

Nov. 3—DETROIT 7, LOS ANGELES 10, at Los Angeles (77,982)

The customers were still filing into the Coliseum when BARNEY took the opening kickoff on his own two-yard line, and went all the way on a brilliant twisting run for a 98-yard touchdown. DePOYSTER'S conversion was good for a 7-0 lead after just 16 seconds. Detroit got the ball back in a hurry and quickly moved to the Los Angeles 28 before a holding penalty thwarted another scoring move. The Rams took over on their 14 after a Lion punt and promptly tied the score on four plays. A 41-yard pass to Casey put the ball at the Detroit 36 before Gabriel hit ELLISON who went in for the score. GOSSETT converted and it was 7-7 after 5:40 of the opening period.

It stayed that way until just before the intermission. The Rams took over on their 35 and punched to the Detroit 31 before GOSSETT kicked a 31-yard field goal to make it 10-7.

The remainder of the game was a defensive battle with no scoring. Detroit made 10 first downs in the second half to only one for the Rams. The Lions outgained the Rams, 113 yards to only 41, and completed nine passes to none for Los Angeles. But the closest the Lions could penetrate was to the 35 and a field goal attempt then was blocked.

(Munson—Completed 14 of 34 passes for 172 yards; Triplett—Carried 11 times for 33 yards; Kopay—Caught 5 passes for 60.)

Nov. 10—DETROIT 10, BALTIMORE 27, at Detroit (55,176)

Detroit took the kickoff and slammed all the way to the Colts' two on 12 plays before Munson was dropped for an 11-yard loss on third down. DePOYSTER kicked a 21-yard field goal to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. It lasted only until the ensuing kickoff when PEARSON took it two yards deep in his endzone and raced 102 yards for a touchdown. LeBeau picked off a Morrall pass late in the period and the Lions drove to the Colt 11 before a holding penalty stalled their drive.

DePoyster missed a field goal try on fourth down from the 25. Baltimore then moved 77 yards before the Lions held to force a MICHAELS' field goal from the 16.

Orr grabbed two more long passes for 30 and 48 yards early in the third period to reach Detroit's five. MATTE then bolted in and MICHAELS converted to make it 17-3. Detroit drove back into field goal range again. The try failed but MICHAELS hit on another three-pointer for Baltimore from 37 yards just before the end of the third quarter with the Colts on top, 20-3.

The Lions moved from their own 38 after the next kickoff. Munson hit Sanders for 12, Farr for 10, Sanders for 10 and then spotted GAMBRELL for a 30-yard touchdown aerial. The Colts bounced right back to go 74 yards to reach the Detroit one. COLE then bumped in and MICHAELS converted. The Lions fought back and reached the Baltimore 11 before the drive fizzled.

(Munson—Completed 26 of 37 passes for 262 yards and a touchdown; Triplett—Carried 9 times for 34 yards; Sanders—Caught 6 passes for 86.)

Nov. 17—DETROIT 6, MINNESOTA 13, at Detroit (48,654)

After an exchange of intercepted passes at the start of the game, the Vikings returned a Detroit punt to the Lion 36. Brown moved the ball to the 23 before COX kicked a 30-yard field goal to give Minnesota a 3-0 lead.

The Lions tied it early in the second period by moving to the 25 on runs by Farr and Munson's passes. WALKER kicked a 33-yard field goal at 4:46 and it was 3-3. Just before the half, the Lions started on their own 35 with only 22 seconds left. Munson hit Gambrell for 44 yards at the Viking 21 and WALKER then kicked another field goal (28 yards) to give the Lions a 6-3 halftime advantage.

Minnesota drove 76 yards midway in the third period. With the ball at the two, LINDSEY cut over tackle for the touchdown. COX converted and Minnesota led, 10-6.

Barney intercepted a Viking pass in the final quarter and returned it 62 yards to the Minnesota 38. But the Vikings held and Walker's field goal try from the 39 was wide. Minnesota moved from its own 20 in the final minutes to reach the Detroit 20 in eight plays. With only 55 seconds left in the game, COX booted a 27-yard field goal to end the scoring.

(Munson—Completed 6 of 20 for 77 yards; Farr—Carried 15 times for 72 yards, and caught 5 passes for 33.)

Nov. 24—DETROIT 20, NEW ORLEANS 20, at Detroit (46,152)

Munson took the Lions 69 yards to a touchdown the first time they got the ball. Key plays were a 25-yard pass to Sanders, two runs by Eddy and Kopay, plus the clincher—a seven-yard scoring pass to GAMBRELL. The Saints came right back when DURKEE kicked a 31-yard field goal.

Whitsell intercepted a Munson pass on the Lion 41 and returned it to the 30 later in the period. With the ball on the nine, Kilmer came in for Sweetan and passed to ABRAMOWICZ for the touchdown. DURKEE'S conversion gave the Saints a 10-7 lead. WALKER'S 43-yard field goal tied it at 10-all at halftime.

Walker missed a 23-yarder early in the third period before Weger intercepted a Sweetan pass to start a scoring drive at the Saints' 26. SANDERS went high in the endzone to grab a 13-yard scoring pass. Again the Saints marched back to tie it following the Lion kickoff. McCALL smacked into the endzone from the two. DURKEE converted and it was 17-17.

A recovered fumble gave the Saints possession on the Detroit 22 early in the final quarter and DURKEE kicked a 31-yard field goal to put New Orleans ahead, 20-17, before Detroit tied it on the next series of plays on a 40-yarder by WALKER. Another three-point try by Walker failed from the 46 and when Durkee missed one for the Saints from the 41 as the game ended, the Lions had to settle for their second tie of the season.

(Munson—Completed 14 of 41 for 189 yards and 2 touchdowns; Eddy—Carried 15 times for 56 yards; Sanders—Caught 4 passes for 59 yards and a touchdown.)

Nov. 28—DETROIT 0, PHILADELPHIA 12, at Detroit (47,909)

The game was played in a steady rain which started the previous night and continued for almost 36 hours. Conditions were the worst in local history. Landry went all the way for Munson at quarter-back. Nelson intercepted a pass at the Eagles' 38. Philadelphia picked up two first downs in the mud before BAKER kicked a 36-yard field goal.

Detroit gambled on a run on fourth down and one yard at the Eagles' 36 but Eddy was dropped for a four-yard loss. Philadelphia then slogged down to the Detroit 12 before BAKER kicked his second field goal from the 18.

Early in the third quarter, Mallory returned a Detroit punt 28 yards to the Lions 25. Detroit held for no gain so BAKER kicked another field goal from the 32 to make it 9-0.

The Lions put on a drive that carried to the Eagles' 36 before Wells intercepted a Landry pass to start another Philadelphia drive which wound up with BAKER booting his fourth field goal, this time from the 35. The Lions then slid and squirmed down to the Eagles' nine on four completions by Landry. But another aerial was intercepted on the five by Ramsey and that was it.

(Landry—Completed 7 of 15 passes for 66 yards, and carried 3 times for 22; Nowatzke—Carried 14 times for 53 yards; Gambrell—Caught 2 passes for 30.)

Dec. 8—DETROIT 24, ATLANTA 7, at Atlanta (49,437)

Detroit moved 67 yards the second time it had possession to grab a 7-0 lead as Munson, back in action after a week's rest, hit GAMBRELL for the touchdown.

The Falcons couldn't move at all until BUTLER ran to his right as the Lion defense blitzed and went 60 yards to the endzone. Until that play, the longest run all year against the Lions had been for 18 yards. ETTER'S conversion tied the score.

Detroit went ahead again the first time the Lions got the ball in the third period. Munson hit Gambrell in the flat on third down and Billy ran 50 yards to the 13. On third down, Munson went to GAMBRELL again for a seven-yard touchdown pass.

Early in the final period, Berry was pressured into a pass that was intercepted by Vaughn who returned it 24 yards to the Atlanta 21. Munson pitched a strike to GAMBRELL who had faked his defender out of position. Another interception by Vaughn and more defensive pressure on Berry gave the Lions field goal position at the 28 and WALKER made it. Detroit recovered a Falcon fumble on the Atlanta 23 and let the clock run out.

(Munson—21 completions in 28 attempts for 212 yards and 3 touchdowns; Triplett—Carried 17 times for 77 yards; Gambrell—Caught 4 passes for 105 yards and 3 touchdowns.)

Dec. 15—DETROIT 3, WASHINGTON 14, at Washington (50,123)

Detroit initiated the game's first long drive midway in the opening quarter when Barney intercepted a Ninowski pass in the end zone and ran it out to the 4. With Eddy running and Munson passing, the Lions moved to the Redskin 39 as the quarter ended.

Munson passed to Sanders at the 8 and Eddy swept wide for five. He fumbled at the three and the ball was recovered in the endzone by Owens. Weger intercepted a Ninowski pass and returned it to the Skin 46. Sanders fumbled and Smith recovered for the Skins. When a long field goal try by Walker was short, the half ended in a scoreless tie.

Washington moved to the Lion 19 to start the third period. Gogolak's try for 3 was no good. Munson then picked up 63 yards on aeriels to Eddy, Sanders and Gambrell before the drive stalled. WALKER booted a 17-yard field goal and Detroit led, 3-0.

Neither team made a serious threat until halfway through the final period when Theofiledes came in for Ninowski. He hit Richter at the Lion 39 and then passed to BRUNET who went all the way for a touchdown. Munson hit McCullouch for 15 and Sanders for 23 before Martin intercepted a third one. At the two-minute warning, Theofiledes arched a long pass to Taylor at the goal. Barney went up to intercept and was ruled guilty of pass interference at the three. On the second play, LARSON scored.

(Munson—Completed 20 of 36 for 258 yards; Eddy—Carried 19 times for 86 yards; Sanders—Caught 10 passes for 133 yards.)

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

Professional football . . . NFL brand . . . first came to Detroit in 1925 when Jimmy Conzelman was granted the franchise in exchange for the startling payment of $50.

But not even the colorful Conzelman, one of the game's most-popular and talented figures, could entice enough fans through his ticket gates. The local franchise was dropped from the league in 1927, re-instated a year later and then declared inactive in 1930. It looked like the end.

Then, in 1934, a very successful radio station owner named George Richards decided that Detroit needed a good pro team. He went out, bought one, then moved it here.

The team was the Portsmouth (Ohio) Spartans and it was a strong one. Coached by George (Potsy) Clark, the newly-named Lions won 10 straight games to open the 1934 season, the first seven by shutouts.

After outscoring the opposition, 215 to 27, in winning those 10 in a row, the Lions then lost their last three games by a total of only nine points and the Chicago Bears were the title winners.

In 1935, it was a different story as they grabbed their first divisional championship with a 7-3-2 record and then went on to win their first NFL crown by crunching the New York Giants at University of Detroit Stadium.

Although the Lions enjoyed winning seasons over the next four years, Richards sold out in 1940 to Fred Mandel, a Chicago department store tycoon. Mandel tried vainly to bring the city a winner during an eight-year regime but finally tossed in the towel.

In 1948, he accepted a check for $165,000 from a group of local businessmen who promptly named Alvin (Bo) McMillin, head coach at Indiana University, as the Lions' new coach and general manager. A re-building program was begun.

Bo's best mark was a break-even 6-6 mark in 1950 but he did a great job in "selling" pro football to the city and state. He was replaced as head coach after the '50 season by Raymond (Buddy) Parker, one of his assistants.

The building program finally paid its first big dividend in 1952 when the Lions tied the Los Angeles Rams in their conference and then defeated them for the divisional title in a playoff. It was on to Cleveland and a 17-7 victory for the NFL championship.

A year later it was a virtual repeat as Detroit, led by Bobby Layne and Doak Walker, won a second straight conference title and then edged the Browns again, this time in Detroit, by a 17-16 score on a late pass from Layne to Jim Doran.

The 1954 season again saw the Detroiters knock off the best in the west for a third consecutive conference crown. But their bid for a third straight NFL title was trumped in abrupt fashion at Cleveland as the Browns drubbed them 56-10.

Parker departed in 1957 when he suddenly resigned just two days before the team's first pre-season game. George Wilson was moved up from an assistant's job to succeed him and promptly steered the team to another championship.

To do it, the Lions had to knock off San Francisco in a divisional playoff game and then once more take on the Cleveland Browns . . . the team that had defeated them by 46 points for the title just three years earlier.

The championship was played at Detroit. The score was 59-14 for the Lions.

Since 1957, the championship door has been closed to the Detroiters. They finished second three straight years in 1960-61-62 and each year were winners in the Playoff Bowl at Miami.

Early in 1964, ownership was acquired by William Clay Ford who paid former stockholders $6,000,000 for the franchise. Harry Gilmer was named coach to replace Wilson who resigned after the '64 season.

On Jan. 11, 1967, Joe Schmidt was appointed to succeed Gilmer after a brilliant 13-year playing career for the Lions, plus one season as an assistant coach.
